

18th January 2016

Statement for Dangerous Substances

We at GT Window Products declare that our products manufactured from steel, acetyl and polypropylene, which are used in the fabrication of windows and doors, are safe in use, and that there are no potential release of emissions of dangerous substances to the internal atmosphere of a building. Our products are inert and all ingredients are locked into the products material form.

Carl Taylor
Managing Director
GT Window Products Ltd